

This week I am looking for lions in the African Savannah. What do you remember about them? Can you tell your grown up a fact?

Openers of the week

The

She

He

I

Tricky words of the week

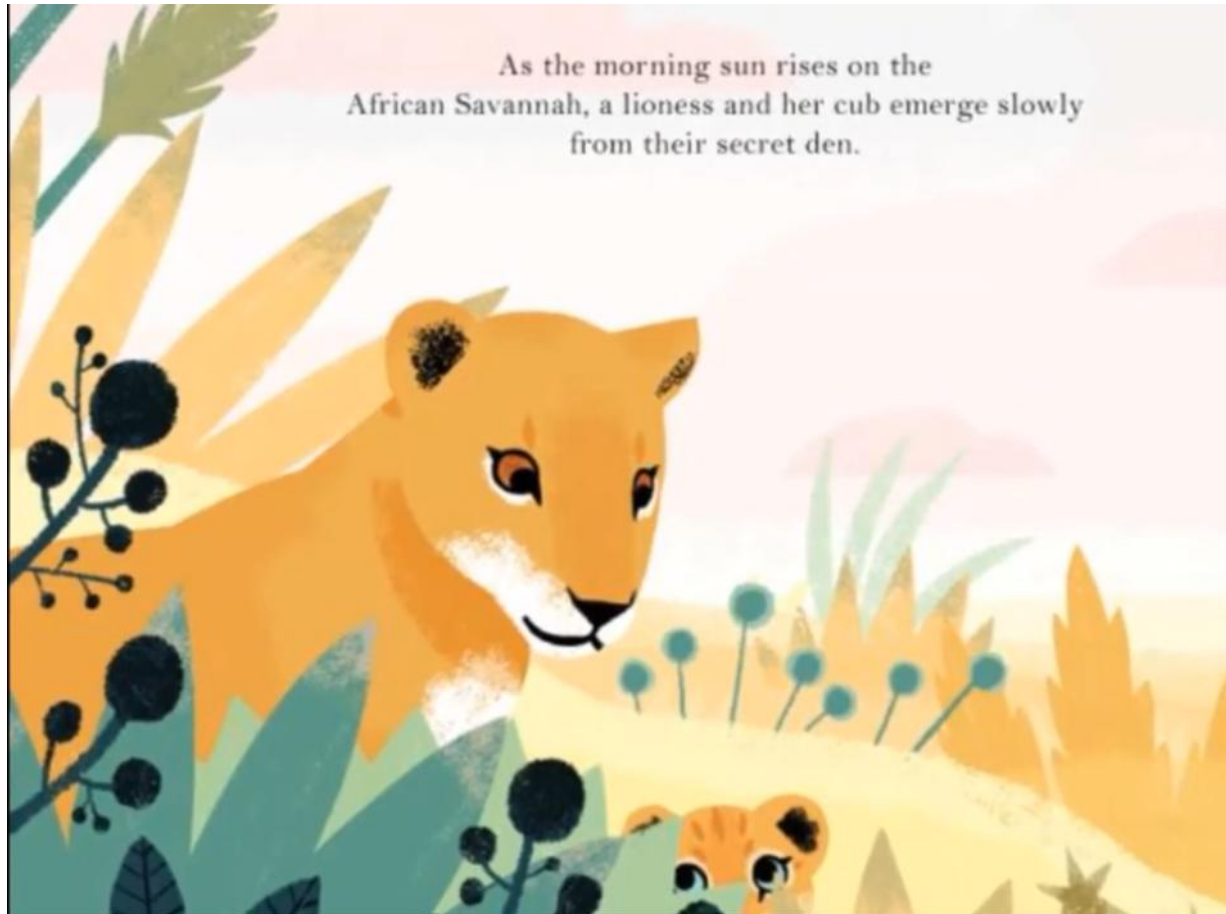

is

Have a go at reading these sentences based on our story of the week. Look out for digraphs and remember to chunk up longer words. Some of the words are hard so remember its okay to ask a grown up to help you if you aren't sure. Good luck!

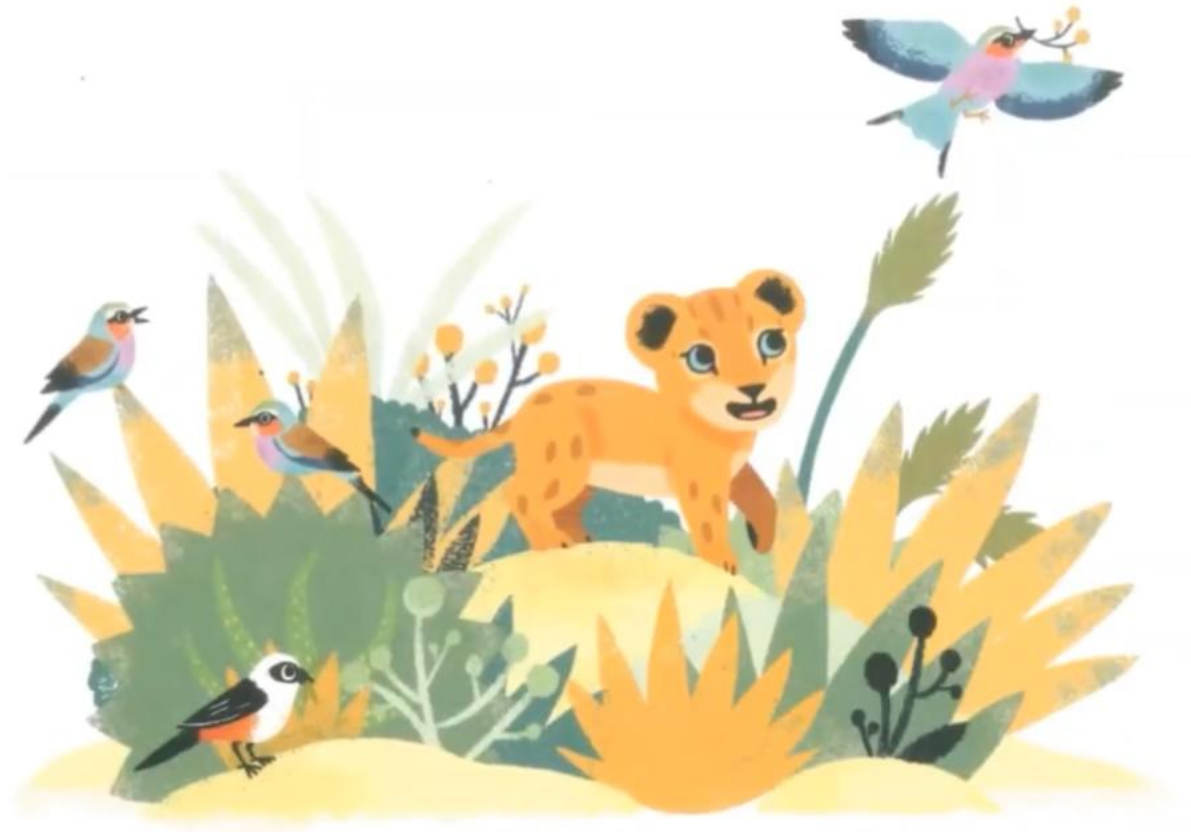

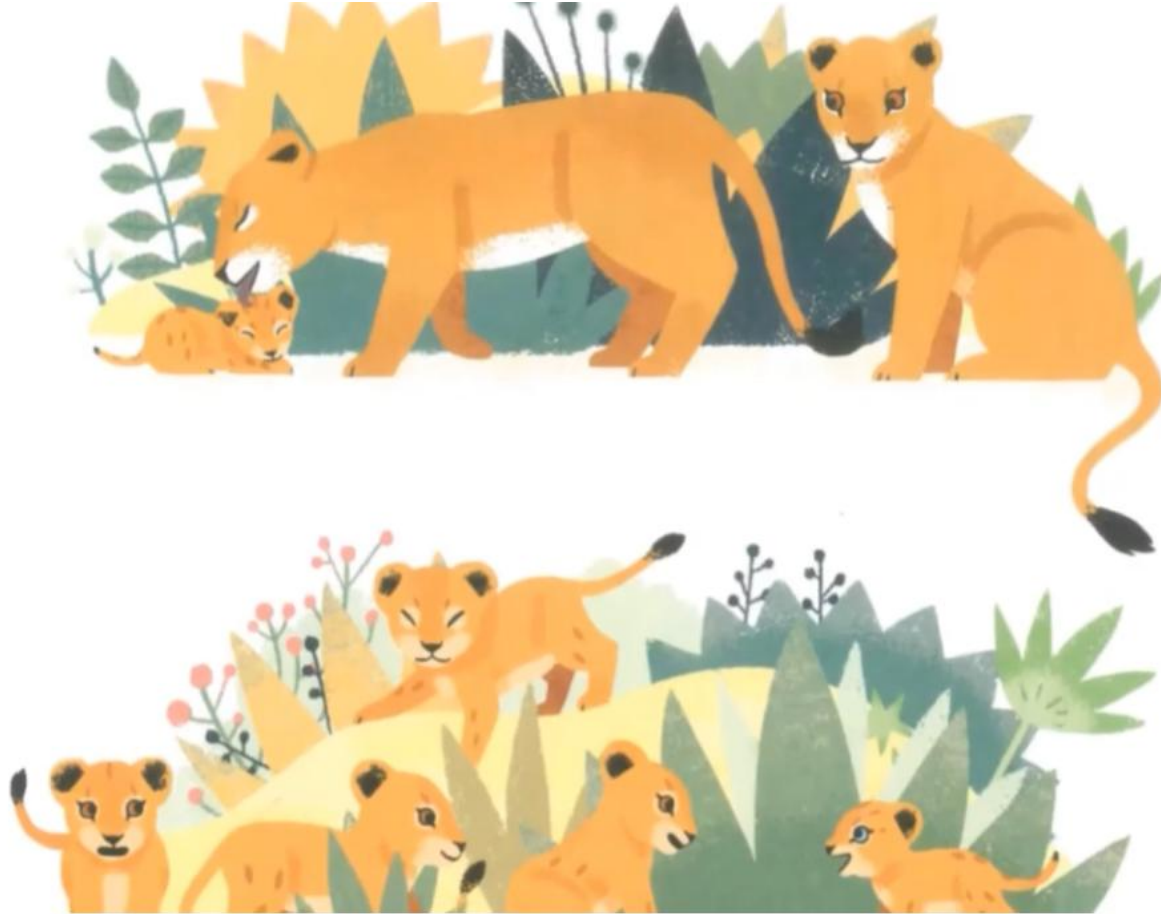

The sun is hot.

The den is hidden.

The cub is big now.

He can join in.

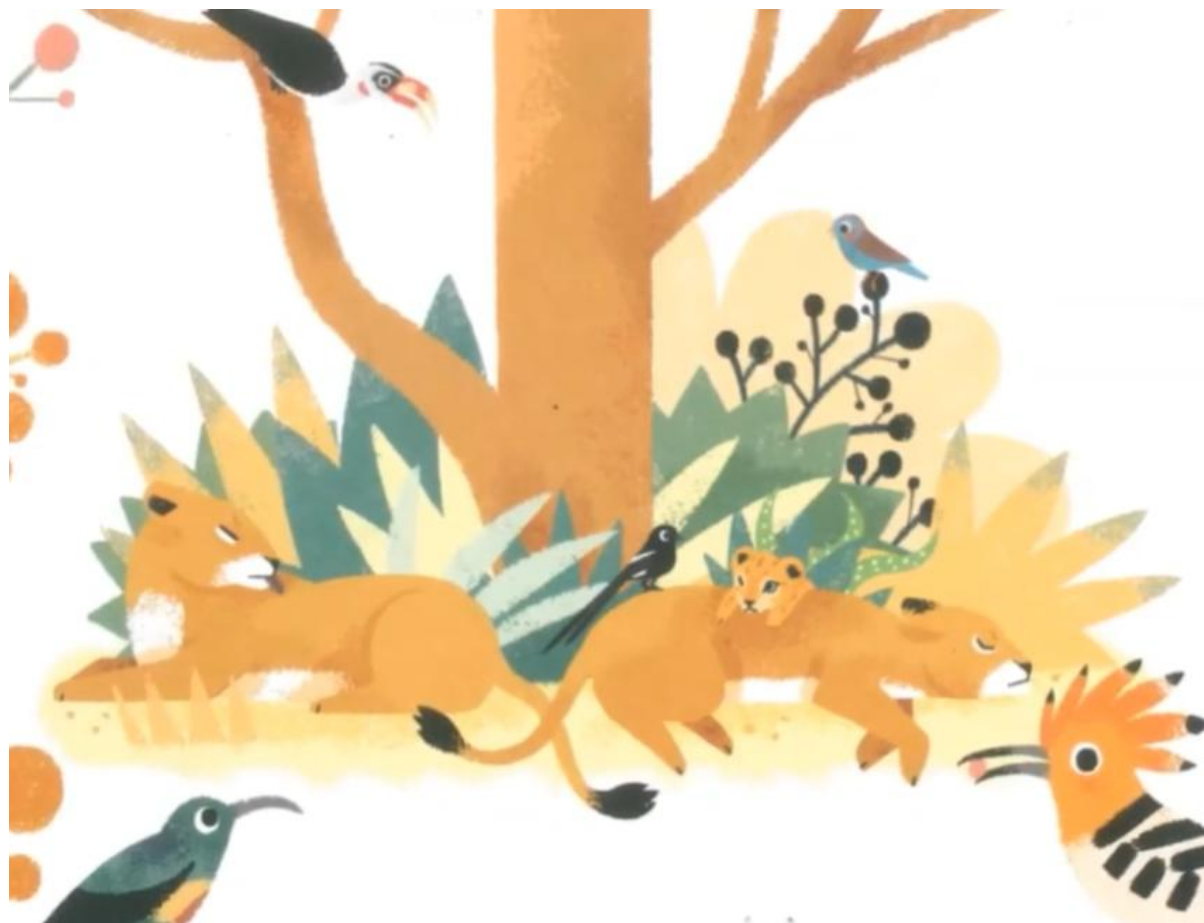

He can help Dad.

He can sip.

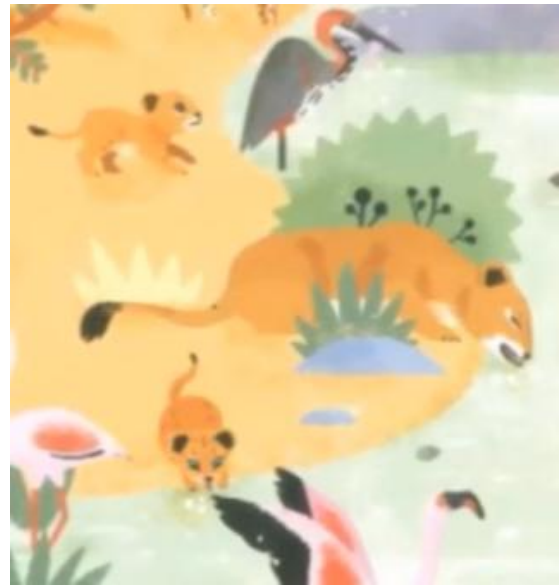

He can hunt.

He can rest.

He can sleep.

Writing task: Choose a picture. What could you write about it? If you chose the first picture you could write a label like 's' for sun or the word 'sun' or a sentence like 'The sun is hot.' Remember to try to start your sentence with the openers He or She or The.

Extension: Can you draw a picture to go with your writing?

Extra challenge

Draw or make your own picture inspired by the African Savannah.